ACIC provides and maintains a publicly accessible online database for Canadian Registration Numbers. The Database provides a service to Field Inspectors and Industry in general through the listing of the CRNs for Boiler, Pressure Vessel, Pressure Fitting and Pressure Piping designs that have been issued by the ACIC member jurisdictions. This service provides ease of access to registration and allows any party with internet capabilities to quickly obtain vital information on registered designs. ACIC invites you to discover the advantages the online database has to offer your organization.

If you do not wish to have your CRN information on our website Please indicate by checking the box ☐
